Display Your Pride in Volunteerism!

Organization Order Form

What is the ICCSV? The Indiana Commission on Community Service and Volunteerism serves as the State of Indiana's central-coordinating office for the service and volunteer sectors across the State. One way that we promote service and volunteerism to our fellow Hoosiers is through the Indiana Volunteers license plate drive.

Display Your Pride! The Indiana Volunteers license plate is a chance for individuals to show their Hoosier pride in volunteerism by displaying the license plate on the front of their vehicles. Organizations can also demonstrate their commitment to strengthening community and civic engagement by displaying the Indiana Volunteers license plate on company and personal vehicles.

Who Benefits? Proceeds from the sale of the Indiana Volunteers license plate will go towards covering expenses such as scholarships, meals and speakers for our 1st annual Statewide Service Conference to be held in October of 2003. We hope that you will attend! Please visit our website, www.IN.gov/iccsv, for more information.
